TO BUILDERS.

WANTED, a PARTNER, to join the Advertiser in the GENERAL BUILDING TRADE now who would undertake the carpentering department would be preferred; and such person having from 400l. to 500l. to invest will be admitted to all the concessions promised by the advertiser of ten years' standing. The yards and workshops are commodiously situated at a short distance from the railway station in one of the finest county towns in the Midland Counties, where a greatly increased trade is capable of being done.—Apply, by letter, to G. B. at the office of Mr. W. H. Pyne, No. 323, Strand, opposite Somerset House.

AS WORKING PARTNER or MANAGER, with a VIEW to PARTNERSHIP.—A Civil Engineer, possessing great natural talent, energy, and practical experience, and who has already executed large works with success and economy, for which he has received gratuitous and private testimonials of the highest character, is desirous of meeting with a firm of railway contractors, general builders, &c. in want of an active working partner, with whom talent, zeal, and some connexion would make up for want of a large capital. He would be capable of managing the business of the railway department with the greatest economy and method. The present advertisement affords an opportunity to any elderly gentleman or others who may be anxious to retire gradually, or to share the cares and emoluments of business. The advertiser has by many honourable testimonials his own capital, 1,000l. to invest.—Address, A. Y. Z. at the Office of "The Builder," 1, York-street, Covent Garden.
